About the Guest Artist

Lithuanian pianist Ieva Jokubaviciute has been described as “an artist of commanding technique, refined temperament, and persuasive insight” (New York Times) and as possessing “razor-sharp intelligence and wit” (Washington Post).

A recipient of a Borletti-Buitoni Trust Fellowship, Ms. Jokubaviciute released her debut recording in 2010 on Labor Records to international acclaim, which resulted in recitals in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington D.C., Vilnius, and Toulouse. As a founding member of the Naumburg International Chamber Music Competition winning piano trio, Trio Cavatina, and as a collaborator, Ms. Jokubaviciute has performed in prestigious halls such as Carnegie Hall's Stern Auditorium, Wigmore Hall, and the Kennedy Center. She regularly performs at international music festivals including Marlboro, Ravinia, Bard, Caramoor, Chesapeake Chamber Music, Four Seasons, and Prussia Cove. Ms. Jokubaviciute is a faculty member of the Kneisel Hall Chamber Music Festival and School, has toured nationally with Musicians from Marlboro, and collaborates in recitals with violinist Midori in Europe, Asia, and South America.

A graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and the Mannes College of Music, Ms. Jokubaviciute was on the piano faculty at Shenandoah University in Winchester, VA, before accepting the position of Associate Professor of Practice of Music at Duke University in Durham, NC.

About the Music Director

Harry Davidson is in his twenty-third season as Music Director and Conductor of the Duke Symphony Orchestra and Professor of the Practice of Music at Duke University. In spring 2007, he was named Music Director and Conductor of Opera at the Cleveland Institute of Music, where he conducts one opera production each semester while continuing in his role as Music Director of the DSO.

In July 2000, he made his major orchestra conducting debut, leading the National Symphony Orchestra in concert at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Mr. Davidson has guest conducted orchestras in Austria, Finland and the U.S., including the Charlotte and Akron symphonies, as well as the Symphony and Chamber Orchestras of the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music, where he has held residencies on two occasions. He has held the positions of Associate Conductor of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra, Professor of Music and Director of Orchestras at Wichita State University, Conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra Youth Orchestra and Associate Professor of Music at the University of Akron. In the past, he has served as a cover conductor for the North Carolina Symphony and the Cleveland Orchestra.

Mr. Davidson was a finalist in the Detroit Symphony's Antal Dorati Conducting Competition and the Hans Swarowsky Conducting Competition in Vienna.
