About the Guest Artist

Andy Zhang is a senior who studies piano at Duke with Professor Peifen Liu. Prior to coming to Duke, he studied piano with Nina Polonsky in Gahanna, Ohio. He has won the OMTA Piano Duo Competition, the U.S. International Duo Piano Competition, and the Duo Division for the Carmel Klavier Competition. A member of the Duke Symphony Orchestra, his repertoire ranges from baroque to contemporary.

Andy graduated from Duke this winter as a Computer Science and Mathematics double major and an Economics minor.

About the Music Director

Harry Davidson is in his twenty-third season as Music Director and Conductor of the Duke Symphony Orchestra and Professor of the Practice of Music at Duke University. In spring 2007, he was named Music Director and Conductor of Opera at the Cleveland Institute of Music, where he conducts one opera production each semester while continuing in his role as Music Director of the DSO.

In July 2000, he made his major orchestra conducting debut, leading the National Symphony Orchestra in concert at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Mr. Davidson has guest conducted orchestras in Austria, Finland and the U.S., including the Charlotte and Akron symphonies, as well as the Symphony and Chamber Orchestras of the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music, where he has held residencies on two occasions. He has held the positions of Associate Conductor of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra, Professor of Music and Director of Orchestras at Wichita State University, Conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra Youth Orchestra and Associate Professor of Music at the University of Akron. In the past, he has served as a cover conductor for the North Carolina Symphony and the Cleveland Orchestra.

Mr. Davidson was a finalist in the Detroit Symphony's Antal Dorati Conducting Competition and the Hans Swarowsky Conducting Competition in Vienna.
