Duke Music Highlight

My lessons with Ieva Jokubaviciute have truly been a highlight of my time at Duke! I've also enjoyed working with collaborators both in classical music and in musical theater.

What's Next

I will be taking a gap year to focus on creative projects before hopefully getting a Ph.D in English literature.

"Music is a gift to anyone's life, regardless of what career path you choose to follow. It's a wonderful opportunity to pursue this interest as an undergrad, and will enhance whatever your other studies are too!"
