Duke Music Highlight

Laughing with friends before class near the fountain, attending lectures in the upstairs rooms, and learning Baroque dance in Bone Hall for my baroque-performance class my freshman year.

"I didn't come into Duke expecting to become a music minor, but I found that it came naturally. If you're interested in music---playing or listening or writing about music-- then there's a home for you in the department. Take what seems interesting and you'll find that you're already on your way to becoming part of Duke Music!"
